Ministry Update

Psalms 82:3

"Defend the weak and the fatherless; uphold the cause of the poor and the oppressed." – Psalms 82:3

Greetings from the island of Samoa! Can you believe that it's already been a month since you last heard from us? As we celebrate October, we wanted to share some highlights and reflections on the events and activities that filled our month.

October in Samoa is marked by White Sunday, celebrated on the second Sunday of the month. White Sunday, known as "Lotu Tamaiti," literally means children's service and is a national holiday dedicated to children. We had a wonderful time celebrating at Great Harvest Church of God, and the photos we've enclosed capture the joy and energy of the day.

Our month began with the Call to Prayer conference. Mindy was honored to be one of the speakers, delivering a message on "the glory." This event set a strong spiritual tone for the rest of the month.

As part of our regular outreach, the Campus of Hope. We engaged with children using balloons and shared lessons focused on butterflies and transformation, teaching valuable life lessons in creative ways.

We were invited to assist with the Pacific Partnership, which organized a health clinic for children. It was a full day spent with the kids, filled with worship, singing, and helping with crowd control to ensure everything ran smoothly. We helped get the children settled and arranged for their clinic activities.

Later in the month, we supported Trade Pack during their Kids Day fair. Despite a rainy day, the children enjoyed bounce houses, and Mindy provided face painting while we distributed balloons.

This month, we distributed baptism certificates, with Jim assisting in the process. Jim participated in "Pinktober," dressing in pink to support the cause. We also continued balloon teaching, including sharing the concept of the "God ball" with several girls during an evening activity.

Our ministry continues to reach all generations, from babies to the elderly, and from orphans to widows. We are grateful for the opportunity to serve and for your ongoing support and prayers. Thank you very much for your kindness and encouragement. Your support means so much to us.
